WAY FROM DANZIG TO PARIS

Allied High Commissioner IIns Been at Odds With Constitutional Assembly.

PARIS, Sept. 4—Sir Reginald Tower, allied high commissioner at Danzig, left there today for Paris, according to a Havas dispatch.

Sir Reginald has recently been at odds with the constitutional assembly at Danzig, and has charged that the assembly's resolution concerning neutrality was unwarranted, as Danzig was not yet a free state. He also charged the assembly with hampering the transportation of munitions to Poland and the return of Poles to their country, and declared before the state council that peace and order had not yet been restored in Danzig.
